EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY:
Part-time Faculty: ENGLISH

Lakeland Community college is one of Ohio's premier two-year colleges. An accredited institution, Lakeland is at the forefront of technology and innovation. Learning is first in every policy, program and practice. The learning college concept provides a unity of purpose for faculty and staff and places an emphasis on teamwork and professional development to better serve students and the community. Lakeland's state-of-the-art facilities attract over 8,500 credit and 18,000 noncredit students annually. Our location places us within 25 miles of world-class activities in the Cleveland area. Read more at: http://lakelandcc.edu/pdf/viewbook.pdf.

Fall Semester 2014
AUGUST 24 – DECEMBER 13, 2014
Monday/Wednesday and Tuesday/Thursday day courses

ENG 0220 College Reading – 3 Credits/3 Units

- Course focuses on the development of strategic college reading skills
- Emphasis on diverse approaches to reading assignments.
- Course is reading intensive; designed to help develop college-level reading skills.
- Does not satisfy a certificate or degree requirement; grade will be satisfactory/unsatisfactory

ENG 0111 Fundamentals of College Literacy - 4 Credits/5 Units

- Course focuses on development and improvement of reading comprehension, language competency and writing skills.
- Emphasis is on discovering self as a reader and writer.
- Course is reading and writing intensive; designed to help develop college-level literacy skills.
- Does not satisfy a certificate or degree requirement; grade will be satisfactory/unsatisfactory.

ENG 1110 English Composition I (A) - 3 Credits/3.75 Units

- Course focuses on the writing process and on the composition of expository writing assignments including personal, informational and critical essays.
- Students read/analyze expository and imaginative texts (fiction, nonfiction, poetry or drama).

ENG 1111 English Composition I (B) - 4 Credits/5 Units

- Course focuses on the writing process and on the composition of expository writing assignments including personal, informational and critical essays.
- Students read/analyze expository and imaginative texts (fiction, nonfiction, poetry or drama).
- In addition, this course reviews the principles of writing effective sentences and paragraphs.

ENG 1120 English Composition II - 3 Credits/3.75 Units

- Course analyzes argumentative strategies, models and texts.
- Students focus on the research process: indentifying sources through electronic and print- based research strategies, evaluating research materials, and integrating and synthesizing research material.
- Course culminates in the production of a fully documented argumentative paper.

QUALIFICATIONS: Master's degree in English required; experience teaching college-level classes preferred.

COMPENSATION: Part-time faculty earn $747/unit of load.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Submit a completed college employment application and part-time faculty addendum*, resume and letter of introduction. Send required materials via e-mail to HRJobs@lakelandcc.edu or via US mail to: Human Resources Department, Lakeland Community College, 7700 Clocktower Drive, Kirtland, OH 44094

Documents are available on our website (www.lakelandcc.edu – click on 'Work at Lakeland')

Lakeland Community College is an equal access and equal opportunity employer. We have a strong commitment to the principle of diversity and, in that spirit, seek a broad spectrum of candidates including women, minorities, people with disabilities and people over 40. Under-represented groups are encouraged to apply. If your disability requires special accommodations to participate in the application/interview process, contact the Human Resources Office at 440.525.7555.