

Holden University Center
Bachelor of Arts in Paralegal Studies
ONLINE

Approved by the American Bar Association, Kent State University (KSU) offers a Bachelor of Arts in Paralegal Studies degree. Students can take elective classes in the areas of intellectual property law, tort law, business law, business law and environmental law. Students will complete a series of liberal education requirements. Paralegal studies students take courses in English composition, mathematics or logic, foreign language, humanities, fine arts, social sciences and basic sciences. All students must complete an internship in the final stages of their coursework. Classes are offered during the day, evening and online. Specialty courses are offered during the summer as well. Our program accommodates fulltime and part-time students.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Partnership students must meet Kent State University admissions standards, including a 2.0 cumulative grade-point average (GPA).

TUITION & FEES:

All tuition and fee information can be found at the following link:

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE:

All students apply online using the following link:
<https://www.kent.edu/>.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR:

Kent State University follows 15-week semesters. To view Kent State University's complete Academic Calendar, please visit <https://www.kent.edu/academic-calendar>.

DELIVERY MODE:

Paralegal courses are offered online through Lakeland's Holden University Center.

TEXTBOOK PURCHASE:

Books can be purchased online through various vendors or through Kent State University's bookstore.

TOTAL HOURS NEEDED:

After completion of an Associate of Applied Studies (AAS) the program requires 69-72 hours.

FINANCIAL AID INFO:

KSU's financial aid information can be found at the following link: <https://www.kent.edu/financialaid>

CONTACT PERSON(S):

Amanda M. Paar Conroy, Esq.
Director of Paralegal Studies
330.672.4148
apaar@kent.edu

Christine Connors
Senior Advisor
330.672.2568
mconnor1@kent.edu

Holden University Center
Room: U-110