

50 Acts of Service

Service Project Title	Free Welding 101 Class
Date(s)	Fall Semester TBD
Brief Description	This workshop will present basic concepts/skills/techniques for forming and welding Toyland caricatures for Lake Farm Park's Country Lights Display.
Number of people needed	Up to 20 participants
Full Description	This workshop will present basic forming and welding concepts/skills/techniques. The ideal participant will have little to no experience welding! The goal of the workshop is to provide enough information to allow the participant to begin to confidently make a finished welding product and serve the community for years to come!
Location	Lakeland Community College - Welding Classrooms
Resources Required	Classroom Instructor – Ryan Eubank
Date and Time	Fall semester 2017 (TBA)
Important Information	REGISTER NOW AT: https://goo.gl/forms/COXPp1R3cJr53d1i2 This workshop held by Ryan Eubank, Department Chair is geared towards participants with little to no experience/knowledge with welding.
Contact Person	Register online - for questions call Ryan Eubank at 216.796.9825 or Mary Brown at 440.525.7824.
Web resources	http://www.lakemetroparks.com/events-activities/events/country-lights-2017

So long as employees have their supervisors' approval, then reasonable amounts of time away from the regular work assignment to assist with limited, non-recurring, episodic college sponsored service projects does not have to be claimed as benefit time. Employees are encouraged to consider how they might, with supervisory approval, flex their work schedule to accommodate the volunteer activity.