Civic Performance Program

Lakeland Community College provides talented community members with many opportunities for expressing their artistic abilities in the performing arts. The college's civic performance program, which is a part of the Arts and Sciences Division, offers community members a theater program and music groups through which they can express and advance their talents. The college's five music groups include the Lakeland Civic Orchestra, Lakeland Civic Band, Lakeland Civic Chorus, Lakeland Civic Jazz Orchestra and Lakeland Civic Flute Choir. Additionally, the college offers talented high school students Jazz Impact, an all-star high school music group. The Lakeland Civic Theatre program offers community members the opportunity to perform in or work backstage on several productions each year. The groups and their directors are listed below:

Lakeland Civic Band

Director, Daniel D. Crain

DIRECTOR

JUDITH ELIAS has a B. M. E. from Youngstown State University and did graduate study at Kent State University with Raymond DeMattia, with extensive additional studies under Maurice Sharp. She is on the faculty of The Fine Arts Association in Willoughby. Elias has appeared as soloist with the Lakeland Civic Orchestra in which she is principal flutist and performs extensively as a member of many fine chamber ensembles in the area. Ms. Elias was adjunct instructor in flute and director of the Lake Erie College Flute Choir from 2001-2017. She is currently the director of the Lakeland Civic Flute Choir. She is a member of the Fine Arts Woodwind Quintet.

GUEST PERFORMER

DR. ROBERT L. BROWN, Professor Emeritus of Lakeland Community College, began piano studies at age six. At 12, his first “gig” was as dance school pianist, followed at age 14, by his first performances with resort bands.

After completing masters and doctoral degrees at Indiana and Columbia Universities, he embarked on a 40-year career as music professor and department chair serving at Lincoln Memorial University (TN) and Lakeland Community College.

His service as church musician (along with wife, Mary) continues into a 45th year.

NARRATOR

HERMAN RUEGER is a product of the Wickliffe City Schools. His first dramatic presentation was that of head angel in the Worden Elementary School Christmas Pageant under the direction of Mr. Fred Lutz. His musical training continued through high school under the direction of Mr. Charles Frank (instrumental) and Mr. Michael Lenenski (vocal/speech). They were responsible for developing a life-long love and appreciation of good music. After graduation from Kent State University, Mr. Rueger became an elementary educator teaching in the Wickliffe City Schools. He also, seasonally, served as a National Park Service ranger/historic interpreter at Jamestown/Yorktown, Virginia (Colonial National Historic Park) and Gettysburg National Military Park. For a period of time he owned and operated a local business. He firmly believes that good music can inspire, uplift spirits and bring untold enjoyment to your life. He is delighted to have been asked to return and narrate the Lakeland Civic Band concerts.

Acknowledgements

*We would like to extend our sincerest gratitude to all those

The Lakeland Civic Flute Choir

THE LAKELAND CIVIC FLUTE CHOIR consists of many members of the previous Lake Erie College Flute Choir, which was in existence from 2001-2017, originated by Judith Elias, now director of the Lakeland Civic Flute Choir. While at Lake Erie College, the flute choir frequently collaborated with The Lake Erie College Community Chorus. In the fall of 2017, the flute choir decided to become separate from Lake Erie College and became The Hildegarden Flute Choir, as they were invited to rehearse and perform at The Hildegarden in Fairport Harbor, Ohio. The Hildegarden Flute Choir was able to add other instruments such as a mandolin, acoustic guitar, guitarrón, piano and percussion instruments on some of their music. When the Hildegarden closed in the spring of 2018, they became The Lake Flute Choir, rehearsing on the campus of St. Mary Catholic Church in Painesville, Ohio, where they had performed on several occasions. In the spring of 2020, they were invited by Dr. Matthew Saunders, Lakeland music department chair, to be in residence at Lakeland Community College to provide a daytime ensemble that could include the Lakeland students. Since it is an already established flute choir, this could be beneficial to the Lakeland students and provide a rehearsal and performance location for the flute choir. The Lakeland Civic Flute Choir is very excited about this opportunity and celebrates their first performance at Lakeland Community College. The Lakeland Civic Flute Choir is open to new members by audition, including students and community members with some previous performance experience. If you are interested, please contact Judith Elias at jelias1@lakelandcc.edu.

ASSASSINS is based on an idea by Charles Gilbert, Jr.

Playwrights Horizons, Inc. – New York City

Produced ASSASSINS Off-Broadway in 1990

Director Dr. Martin Friedman

This sinisterly humorous musical revue takes a journey through the dark side of the American dream, as it explores the lives of nine people who either killed (or tried to kill) one of the Presidents of the United States.

Post-play discussions will be hosted by Greg Truhan, Lakeland professor and program director for the criminal justice program, former police officer and retired senior special agent with the United States Secret Service (USSS).

Tony Award-winning play.

Feb. 4, 5, 11, 12, 18 and 19 at 7:30 p.m. • Feb. 6, 13 and 20 at 2 p.m.

Tickets are available for online purchase only at lakelandcc.edu/arts.

Bring your order confirmation to show at the door.

Theater performance tickets are: $15 adults, $12 seniors and veterans, and $7 students.

For mature audiences.
