Theater

Lakeland Civic Theater presents "Inspector General," September 13 through September 29, 2019, in the Doctor Wayne L. Rodehorst Performing Arts Center in the D-Building. This play is written by Nicolai Gogol and directed by Doctor Martin Friedman.

In this brilliant 1836 Russian satire, corrupt officials and the mayor of a small town are panic-stricken by the incipient arrival of an incognito inspector sent by the government to investigate their misdeeds. They mistakenly believe a buffoonish, yet crafty young man, is the dreaded government sleuth and seek to bribe him. The young man, seeing an opportunity for personal financial gain, embarks on a mission to take advantage of their rampant fraudulency and stupidity. With great originality and humor, this play confronts the timeless plague of unscrupulous politicians.
