

Holden University Center
Master of Arts in National Security and Intelligence Studies
ONLINE

The Notre Dame College Master of Arts in National Security and Intelligence Studies is an online degree program that features three intensive weekend visits to campus for on-site, practical exercises. This includes an analytical crisis exercise at the midpoint of the program. The student capstone taken at the end of the program is a real-world, strategic project from the government or private sector. Notre Dame College's exceptionally trained faculty work for a variety of security agencies and help students apply their coursework throughout the program. Coursework focuses on modern security challenges and appropriate response methods. National security and intelligence studies students learn the foundations of policymaking and the factors that shape enacted policies.
