

The Cleveland State University (CSU) Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership program allows students to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree without leaving the campus of Lakeland Community College by taking classes through the Holden University Center. CSU classes are taught via Interactive Video Distance Learning (IVDL) by CSU faculty and instructors. The Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership is a multidisciplinary program of study for students interested in leadership theory and practice. The program prepares students to assume leadership roles in organizational settings in the public, private and nonprofit sectors. Students may complete some major requirements through the Assessment and Accreditation of Prior Learning Experience (AAPLE) credit for Life experience program through the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs.
