Cabot, Spellacy Earn All-Conference Honors

KIRTLAND, Ohio (October 30, 2014) – Freshman Carly Cabot (Aurora, Ohio / Aurora) and classmate Elizabeth Spellacy (Lakewood, Ohio / Lakewood) have been named to the Ohio Community College Athletic Conference (OCCAC) All-Conference team as voted on by league coaches. Cabot was selected to the first team while Spellacy was named to the second team after record-setting seasons with the Lakers.

Cabot finished the year with 1,184 assists, the second most in a single season in the history of Lakeland women's volleyball. The freshman played and started in all 33 matches and finished ninth in the nation (NJCAA Division II) and second in the OCCAC in assists. She also ranked 12th in the country in assists per set with a 9.25 average. She set a career-high with 54 helpers against Cincinnati State on October 11 and eclipsed the 40-assist mark in 13 matches this season.

Spellacy posted one of the most prolific offensive seasons in program history with 421 kills in 32 matches. The outside hitter ends the season ranked second in single-season kills, trailing only Jacki Hruby's 2001 school record of 460. Spellacy ranks fourth in the OCCAC in kills and second in the conference with 200 in 14 league matches. She also sits at 14th in the nation in kills and 24th in kills per set. She set a career-high with 23 against Sinclair on September 19 and posted double-digit kills in all but four matches in her first collegiate season.

Lakeland finished the year 14-19 overall and 5-9 in OCCAC competition. The Lakers were a freshmen-laden team in 2014 and look poised to compete with the conference's best next year.

Lakers End Season with Weekend Split

PIQUA, Ohio (October 25, 2014) – The Lakeland Community College women's volleyball team suffered a hard-fought, five-set loss to Sinclair on Friday night before closing out the 2014 season with a 3-1 victory over host Edison to finish the year 14-19 overall and 5-9 in Ohio Community College Athletic Conference (OCCAC) play. The Lakers five conference wins are the most since the 2009 season when they went 6-6. LCC finished sixth in the league this year.

Freshman Grace Wilson (Chagrin Falls, Ohio / Chagrin Falls) posted a career-high 17 kills in each match to pace the Lakeland offense. Classmate Elizabeth Spellacy (Lakewood, Ohio / Lakewood) finished with 35 for the weekend to move her season total to 421. Spellacy ends the year with the second most kills in a single season in program history behind Jacki Hruby's 2001 total of 460.

Carly Cabot's (Aurora, Ohio / Aurora) busy weekend included 102 assists over the course of the two matches. She finished one assist shy of matching a career-high when she handed out 53 in the loss to Sinclair. Cabot ends the year second on the all-time, single-season assists list with 1,184. The freshman setter was also second in the conference with 563 in 14 league matches.

Jessica Fontana (Thompson, Ohio / Ledgemont) chipped in 24 kills with just one error over the weekend. She ends the year with a team-best 140 blocks to finish fourth in program history.

McDowell, Lakers Celebrate Sophomore Night with Sweep

KIRTLAND, Ohio (October 22, 2014) – Erin McDowell (Kirtland, Ohio / Kirtland) posted eight digs and served 12 points in the final set alone to propel Lakeland to a 3-0 victory over visiting Cuyahoga on Sophomore Night Wednesday evening. McDowell, the Lakers' lone upperclassman, played in her final home game as a member of the Lakeland Community College women's volleyball team.

The sophomore outside hitter helped Lakeland (13-18, 4-8 OCCAC) race out to an 11-3 early in the deciding set after taking the first two 25-17 and 25-23. After the Challengers fought back to make it 20-16, McDowell stepped to the line and served out four of the match's final five points to secure the victory.

The night also saw a Lakeland record fall as freshman Jordan Talevski (Willoughby, Ohio / Willoughby South) set the single-season program record for digs with 634. The freshman libero surpassed Lynn Wervey's 1990 record of 625.

Liz Spellacy (Lakewood, Ohio / Lakewood) and Krista Curtis (Willoughby, Ohio / Willoughby South) posted 13 kills apiece while freshman setter Carly Cabot (Aurora, Ohio / Aurora) handed out a team-high 40 assists in the win.

Lakeland returns to action on Friday and Saturday when they take on Sinclair and Edison, respectively, in the final two matches of the 2014 season.

Former Laker Oani Named Head Coach at Chagrin Falls

CHAGRIN FALLS, Ohio (July 1, 2014) – Former Lakeland Community College women's volleyball player Leona Oani has been named head coach of the girls' varsity volleyball team at Chagrin Falls High School. Oani, who spent last season as an assistant at Streesboro High School, inherits a team which went 14-8-1 last year and lost in the sectional final to Hathaway Brown.

Oani played one season under former head coach Jessica VanHorn, helping the Lakers to 14 wins including six Ohio Community College Athletic Conference (OCCAC) victories in 2009. As a freshman libero, Oani led the team with 350 digs.

The Mantua, Ohio native will embark on her first season as a head coach when the Tigers open the season at Willoughby South on August 21.
