HISTOTECHNOLOGY

Work behind the scenes in a medical lab.

As a histotechnology professional you'll work behind the scenes in a medical lab. While you have no patient contact, you will directly help them by assisting doctors with what they need to provide a diagnosis.

A histotechnician:

- » Is trained to prepare and stain tissue slides for microscopic examination and disease diagnosis by the pathologist
- » May preserve organs for later examination
- » Performs enzyme and immunohistochemistry techniques
- » May assist the pathologist in the preparation of frozen tissue sections which are used to provide rapid diagnosis

How long does it take to complete this program and be job-ready?

- » 62 credits (2 years)
- » Program starts fall semester of each year.

Credential

Lakeland's histotechnology graduates are eligible to take the national certification exam to become a histotechnician, known as a HT.
